

109TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 4886

To designate Colombia under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act in order to make nationals of Colombia eligible for temporary protected status under such section.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 7, 2006

Mr. MCGOVERN (for himself, Mr. GRIJALVA, Mr. KUCINICH, and Mr. DELAHUNT) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To designate Colombia under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act in order to make nationals of Colombia eligible for temporary protected status under such section.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Colombian Temporary 5 Protected Status Act of 2006”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds that—

1 (1) Colombia has been embroiled in a 38-year
2 internal conflict, resulting in the death of tens of 3 thousands civilians and combatants;

4 (2) the 2 main armed antigovernment rebel
5 groups, the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colom-
6 bia (Fuerzas Armadas Revolucionarias de Colombia,
7 or FARC) and the National Liberation Army
8 (Ejercito de Liberacion Nacional, or ELN) control,
9 operate in, or influence 40 to 50 percent of Colom-
10 bia's territory;

11 (3) the FARC and ELN regularly attack civil-12 ian populations, commit extrajudicial killings and 13 massacres, collect war taxes, compel civilians into 14 their ranks, and engage in other coercive practices
15 against the civilian population, including the growing 16 of illicit crops;

17 (4) the main paramilitary groups, such as the 18 United Self-Defense Groups of Colombia
19 (Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia, or AUC), have 20 grown dramatically in recent years to become a 21 major national force, operating in nearly every de-22 partment of the country;

23 (5) the AUC and related paramilitary groups
24 are responsible, according to human rights groups, 25 for over 70 percent of extrajudicial killings and

1 forced disappearances in Colombia since 1995, and 2 regularly attack civilian populations and engage in 3 other coercive practices against the civilian popu-
4 lation, including the growing of illicit crops;

5 (6) the FARC, ELN, and AUC, all designated 6 by the Department of State as foreign terrorist or-7 ganizations, have an estimated combined force of 8 35,000 combatants;

9 (7) according to Colombian and international 10 refugee organizations, the number of people newly 11 displaced by political violence increased by 30 per-12 cent from 317,340 in 2000 to 412,000 in 2002, 13 making Colombia's internally displaced population of 14 approximately 3 million people the second largest 15 population of internally displaced people in the 16 world;

17 (8) Afro-Colombian communities, especially the 18 largely Afro-Colombian province of Choco, registered 19 the highest percentage of population displaced in 20 2002;

21 (9) according to Colombian and international
22 human rights organizations, the number of people 23 killed or disappeared per day increased from 14 in 24 2000 to 20 in 2002;

1 (10) according to the United Nations High
2 Commissioner for Human Rights 2003 Annual Re-
3 port, direct violations by the Colombian military in-4 creased in 2002;

5 (11) according to Colombian and international
6 human rights organizations and the State Depart-
7 ment's own country reports, significant collaboration
8 between the AUC and related paramilitary forces
9 and the Colombian Armed Forces remain persistent 10 and pervasive, especially at the local, departmental,
11 and regional level;

12 (12) kidnappings, perpetrated mainly by the 13 FARC, ELN and criminal organizations, target 14 mainly middle and upper classes and political and 15 business leaders, while declining from 3,706 in 2000
16 to 2,986 in 2002, remain unacceptably high and af-
17 fect the daily security of the target populations;

18 (13) President Uribe has reduced by more than 19 50 percent the budgets for the Colombian Human 20 Rights Ombudsman Office (La Procuraduria) and 21 for local, regional and federal-level attorneys and of-22 ficers of the Colombian Human Rights Defenders
23 Office (Defensoria del Pueblo);

24 (14) investigations and prosecutions of human 25 rights crimes have stalled or been dismissed during

1 the 2002–2003 tenure of Colombian Attorney Gen-
2 eral Luis Camilo Osorio;

3 (15) there is little likelihood of a resumption of 4 peace negotiations between the Colombian govern-
5 ment and the largest rebel force, the FARC, fol-6 lowing the collapse of talks in 2002; and 7 (16) the violence of the war, which had been 8 mostly contained in rural areas prior to 2002, has 9 now spread to urban areas, with cities such as 10 Medellin experiencing an average of 13 killings a 11 day, is daily escalating with no foreseeable relief in 12 either rural or urban regions.

13 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

14 It is the sense of the Congress that, in view of the 15 recent escalation of the current civil war in Colombia, Co-
16 lombia qualifies for designation under section
17 244(b)(1)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 18 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1)(A)), pursuant to which Colombian na-19 tionals would be eligible for temporary protected status in 20 the United States.

21 SEC. 4. DESIGNATION FOR PURPOSES OF GRANTING TEM-
22 PORARY PROTECTED STATUS TO COLOM-
23 BIANS.

24 (a) DESIGNATION.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of section 244
2 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
3 1254a), Colombia shall be treated as if it had been 4 designated under subsection (b) of that section, sub-5 ject to the provisions of this section.

6 (2) PERIOD OF DESIGNATION.—The initial pe-
7 riod of such designation shall begin on the date of 8 enactment of this Act and shall remain in effect for 9 2 years.

10 (b) ALIENS ELIGIBLE.—In applying section 244 of 11 the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a)
12 pursuant to the designation made under this section, sub-
13 ject to section 244(c)(3) of the Immigration and Nation-
14 ality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(3)), an alien who is a na-
15 tional of Colombia meets the requirements of section 16 244(c)(1) of that Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(1)) only if—

17 (1) the alien has been continuously physically
18 present in the United States since the date of enact-
19 ment of this Act;

20 (2) the alien is admissible as an immigrant, ex-
21 cept as otherwise provided under section
22 244(c)(2)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality
23 Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(2)(A)), and is not ineligible
24 for temporary protected status under section

1 244(c)(2)(B) of that Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(2)(B)); 2 and

3 (3) the alien registers for temporary protected
4 status in a manner that the Secretary of Homeland
5 Security shall establish.

6 (c) CONSENT TO TRAVEL ABROAD.—The Secretary
7 of Homeland Security shall give the prior consent to travel
8 abroad described in section 244(f)(3) of the Immigration
9 and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(f)(3)) to an alien 10 who is granted temporary protected status pursuant to the 11 designation made under this section, if the alien estab-
12 lishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Homeland Se-13 curity that emergency and extenuating circumstances be-14 yond the control of the alien require the alien to depart 15 for a brief, temporary trip abroad. An alien returning to 16 the United States in accordance with such an authoriza-
17 tion shall be treated the same as any other returning alien 18 provided temporary protected status under section 244 of 19 the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a).
